You duck as a blast cuts through the air over your head, and one of your inebriated assailants begins to chuckle. "That's not all they didn't know about, Tasha. We snagged these from that antique-bearing transport wreck a couple months back, kept 'em here for a rainy day. And you bringing outsiders to take our last transportation seems quite stormy indeed."

- He's drunk and untrained, and I'm young and fast. Charge!
- Nobody tries to kill my hair and lives. I shoot first and ask questions never!
- "Sober up there, Cletus. We're here to help."

Face Noir is a game that I recommend because:

- it has a good price
- it is a good point & click
- it has adventure
- the graphics are simple but good
- it has a good storyline
- it is decent enough for its price
- it has trading cards

Enjoy!. Better than PUBG and Fornite. This is my first ever review of a game. I like short, fun, platform games that have an old school feel. This game is fun, I am 44 and like platform games from the 80's this game is a fun little time waster. It can be frustrating as all get out. The fun little thing is once you get it right, it replays the level showing all your other attempts like a little auto rolling level run. After the 19th attempt there are quite alot of little ninjas running along. At under a $ well worth the money.. This game for me, is the Epitomy of Good games. Great gameplay, Great graphics, Great story, Great community, Great Booty.

If you love immersive pirate experiences, then put down AC4 and play this motherfricker.

Cannot reccomend highly enough. I love this game.. Real bare bones game, that tricks you into thinking it's something more because of the decent graphics.

Its more like a visual novel with a 3D static hub world to walk around in.

No real interactions with the characters at all, scenes are a black screen with describing text.

I had a good time playing this game.

- Although the story is very simplistic, its is also interesting and appealing in a relaxing way.
- The processes of map discovery and trading is fun.
- The combat/haggling mechanics are interesting, but underdevelopped. The AI is dumb, so your chances of winning are rarely dependent on your skill.. I'm really enjoying the tank battles in this game, the A.I is good and the replay value is decent due to regenerated maps & mission scenarios.

Overall:- This is Good Arcade Action game, with some strategy added too. An easy to pick-up and play game.

Rating:- 8.5/10. A great game ruined by horrid optimization and a terrible camera. The disk version doesn't seem to suffer from the same problem. Multiplayer scene is dead and half the time you can't even connect to the internet. Aside from the terrible optimization the singleplayer story and missions are quite fun and discovering all the easter eggs was a blast.. Only played for a short time, but so far so good. Graphics, music, SFX all very nostalgic and true to the genre.. Okay, firstly, I do hope the developer takes the time to read these reviews. HeVshe has some real potential with this game, but it still requires some work.

As it stands right now, I cannot recommend this game. The mechanics need a good polishing to really be usable. Seriously.. Adding scroll functionality to drag the objects in your hand even slightly forward/backward would make the controls so much more friendly. The game could so benefit from SOME sort of context... It feels like you are playing Portal with GLADoS muted. The map quality is GOOD, but ultimately bland. And the lighting is so overly saturated that it feels like you are playing a J.J. Abraams movie. And the fact that the desktop icon for the game is still the default Unreal logo... I just feel like the dev should have put more time into it before cashing out.

Overall... As the game stands I would give it a 4V10. If the game were to get a little more love and learn how to captivate its players, it has the potential to be something fun and unique.. Actually the best game I have ever bought for under 1 euro and is pretty okay and entertaining aswell. :)
